BBMP budget soon

Major BBMP (Bangalore Metropolitan Region) budget for the year 2013-14 was decided on March 7. The budget was presented by the deputy mayor of the BBMP, S. Divya.

CNG tankers

The government of Karnataka, in collaboration with the Union government, has given the go-ahead for distributing compressed natural gas (CNG) to the people of Bangalore city. The project in- volved the distribution of compressed natural gas (CNG) for transportation in the city.

The project, which was commissioned by KJ, involved the distribution of CNG to the residents of the city. The project was implemented by the BBMP, in collaboration with the Union government.

The project was implemented in a significant way, with the distribution of CNG to the residents of the city. The project was implemented in a significant way, with the distribution of CNG to the residents of the city.

The project was implemented in a significant way, with the distribution of CNG to the residents of the city.